PART A: DESCRIPTION OF THE STUDENT'S SEMESTER

Please enter the course title, distribution of credit from the nine grid categories, and the number of credits requested for each course. Below each course, please describe in one paragraph the course requirements that you will fulfill and the work that you will submit to receive full credit. This may be copied from the most recent version of the China Center Course Syllabi, but if you are taking the course for more or less credit than is described in the syllabus, or have made special arrangements with your advisor, please indicate precisely what requirements you will meet, including total amount or percent of readings, attendance, fieldtrips and written work to be completed. This information will be used by your advisor at the end of the eighth week to evaluate your progress and at the end of the term to award full or partial credit accordingly.

PART B: STUDENT ADVISOR CONTRACT

Please review the above Learning Plan with your advisor, print and sign below by the end of the second week of classes. By doing so the student and Faculty Advisor agree to the above requirements for each course and acknowledge that partial credit may be awarded by the advisor in the event the student fulfills only part of the requirements. The student Learning Plan may be renegotiated between advisor and student as necessary and a new contract drafted, but all Learning Plans must be included in the Portfolio of Learning due at the end of the semester.
